These risks include but are not limited to, variations in snow, steepness and terrain, trail side drop-offs, ice and icy conditions, moguls, rocks, trees, and other forms of forest growth or debris (above and below the surface), bare spots, lift towers, utility lines, poles and guy wires, snow-making equipment and component parts, trail fences, and the absence of such fences and other forms of natural or man-made obstacles on and/or off designated trails as well as collisions with equipment, including snowmobiles, obstacles and other skiers. Trail conditions vary constantly because of weather changes and skier use. These are some of the risks of skiing. All of the inherent and other risks of skiing present the risk of serious and/or fatal injury.

The purchaser or user further agrees not to sue Elk Mountain and agrees to release Elk Mountain from any and all liability if the user or any member of the user's family is injured while using any of Elk Mountain's facilities or while being present at Elk Mountain's facilities, even if it is contended that such injuries are the result of Elk Mountain's negligence, sole or joint, or any other improper conduct for which a release is not contrary to public policy.

The user of this ticket hereby gives Elk Mountain permission to use any photograph or video of the user taken while using Elk Mountain's facilities for use in commercial or non-commercial marketing/publicity without compensation

I agree that all disputes arising under this contract and/or from my use of the facilities at Elk Mountain Ski Resort, Inc. shall be litigated exclusively in the Court of Common Pleas of Susquehanna County or in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania.
